MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 12, 1882.

BLUNDERS OF THE OLD MASTE: .- Tintoret represented the "Israelites Gathering Manna," armed with guns, Cignoli the aged Simeon at the circumcision of Christ streets. with a pair of spectacles on his nose, and Rubens committed the same error in his famous picture of "Mary Anointing the Feet of Christ." In a picture of "Christ Healing the Sick," by Verrio, the spectators are represented as wearing periwigs on their heads. Albert Durer painted the expulsion of Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden by an angel in a flounced dress. The same artist, in a picture of "Peter Denying Christ," intro-duces a Roman soldier smoking a German pipe. A Flemish picture of the wise men worshiping the infant Christ has one of them depicted in a large white surplice and in boots and spurs. In this incongruous dress he is represented in the act of presenting the child with a model of a Dutch-man-ofwar. An artist of the same school, in a painting of Abraham offering up his son Isaac, the patriarch, instead of using a knife as described in the Scriptures, is holding a blunderbuss to the head of Isaac. Bellini has pictured the Virgin and Child in the act of listening to a violin; in another picture he has drawn King David playing a harp at the marriage of Christ with St. Catharine. In a French picture of the "Last Supper" the table is ornamented with tumblers filled with eigar lighters. The crowning blunder is shown in a painting of the Garden of Eden in which Adam and Eve are represented in all their primitive simplicity, while in the immediate background appears a hunter in a modern sporting suit in the act of shooting ducks with a gun.-N.
